GOVERNOR MARMADUKE DEAD.
John S. Marmaduke, governor of Missouri, died at the executive mansion, in Jefferson City, at 9:37 P. M., on Wednesday, of catarrhal pneumonia. He was born in Saline county, in that state, in 1834, was a graduate of West Point and a soldier of the confederacy, filling successively the grades of colonel, brigadier general and major general. His military career ended with his capture by General Pleasanton at the battle of Mine Creek, near the site of the present city of Pleasanton, Linn county, Kansas, in the fall of 1864.

W. R. HILL, after a long rest from journalistic cares, has retaken charge of the Hill City Reville.

"GRAINFIELD," remarks the Cap Sheaf of the 23, "was well nigh depopulated yesterday by so many people going down to Gove City to attend the meeting of the creditors of our late bank."

THE WORLD apprises the citizens of Wa-Keeney of the desirability of organizing a board of trade, as a means of reaching out after manufacturing establishments. [Ness City News, That is what it does.

THE police court records of this week show a fine of $2 and costs assessed against Tom Dann for riding his horse too fast in the streets of the city. [Ness City News, The question occurs to an outsider, how fast is too fast?

IN talking of the divisions in the Kansas Democracy, as championed by the Abilene Gazette and the Topeka Democrat respectively, the Kansas City Star expresses a doubt as to whether that party in this state is big enough to be cut in two.

THE death of Hon. Daniel Manning at Albany, N. Y., last Saturday, cast a shadow over the country. He was an editor, a banker, and, until his health gave out, the trusted head of the treasury department under Mr. Cleveland. Mr. Manning was an able man.

TO BROTHER TRIPLETT, of Leoti: You were at Topeka yourself, as a house delegate, a portion of last winter. Why did not you make a move looking to the introduction by some member of a joint resolution for a legislative amendment to the constitution? Honors are easy.

At the election in Logan county on the 23 inst., Russell Spring was elected county seat by sixteen majority over all opposition, thus saving the trouble of another election. The full Republican county ticket was elected, with the exception of Black, Democrat, for treasurer. The total number of votes cast was 1,022.

WHOEVER it is from whom we are receiving the Congressional Record will please understand distinctly that he has our thanks for the donation. While the Record is pretty voluminous for regular reading, we never have wanted to be without since away along before we began to run the World.

Judgment for $29.00.
In Justice Bartlett's court, last Saturday, judgment for $29.00 was rendered against the outcast who runs the alleged newspaper in the basement. Marshall & Ufford had sued him for this amount, and he sought to evade its payment on the childish plea that they had promised to take pay in advertising for what goods he saw fit to buy. M. D. Hollister, counsel for plaintiffs, asked the defendant why he didn't buy all their goods on such a bargain as this?

—On Thursday the case of Wm. McFarland vs. N. H. Sawtelle was tried before Justice Bartlett and a jury. McFarland had taken, in 1886, from Sperry & Matthews a note for $104.00, bearing interest at 12 per cent. This note was turned over to Mr. Sawtelle for collection. It was demonstrated at the trial that $11.00 had been paid on the note. The jury found for plaintiff in the sum of $94.25. The defendant took an appeal to the district court.

—J. H. March went to Scott City the fore part of the week. On the way back he was snowbound at a station on the D. M. & A., between there and Ogdensburg. On this account, he did not reach home until yesterday morning.

—Marshall & Ufford have brought suit in Justice Hutzler's court against J. M. Ostrander on a promissory note for $57.77, bearing interest at the rate of 12 per cent. since June 26, 1886. The case will be heard next Thursday.

—The family of County Clerk Hoar moved into new quarters—the residence recently purchased of J. R. Kershaw—Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Kershaw are boarding at C. J. Ferris's.

—Dr. Jones has attached property belonging to Jno. W. Hogan for the purpose of collecting a $30 bill. The case will be heard on the 7 inst. in Justice Hutzler's court.

—The county commissioners begin their regular quarterly meeting on Monday—unless they conclude to call that New Year's day.

—Justice Bartlett keeps his office in the northwest room at Monroe, Henkel & Dann's office.

—John W. Kerns, county clerk elect of Logan county, was in the city yesterday.

—Ed. Carter, of Wekan, Wallace county, was a yesterday caller.

WONDERER.

—Alfred Monroe, who grew up to a considerable extent in Wa-Keeney, jumped off the east-going train Thursday morning, and took the one going east the next morning. He lives in Denver, but was on the way to Chicago, where he expects to remain for about three months. He has grown into manhood, presents a handsome appearance and is an intelligent talker. Both he and his brother Fred are striking examples of the proposition that fatherless children, with a good mother, are safe enough when they happen to be composed of the proper proportions of grit and soul.

—Wm. Stimits tells us that the rock which he first quarried for the court house was taken out of a formation of the exact shape of the bottom of a ship, dipping downward from the bow and expanding at each side until the middle of the length was reached, and then rising gradually and contracting in breadth to the stern. This certainly is remarkable, to say the least. We now detail Superintendent A. B. Baker, who is a fine geologist by practice, to repair to that place, find out what ship that was, who lost it, and report the facts to this office without unnecessary delay.

—Up to Thursday afternoon of this week, County Treasurer Gibbs had issued for taxes paid him this year 915 receipts. At the same date in 1886, 700 receipts had been issued; while at the same date in 1885, only 526 had been issued. The most of the receipts for this year have been issued for taxes paid upon property in Trego county. Some of them are for taxes paid from Logan county, but the proportion of receipts for property in this county is larger than it was last year or the year before.

—On Thursday James Siebert, of Collyer, bought of G. C. Stebbins the first lot south of Mead's corral, on the west side of Washington street. Mr. Siebert will move his house from Collyer to this lot, after which he will bring his family here, and go into the house, carriage and sign painting business. He is a splendid painter, and will be a desirable accession to our community.

—Samuel Thompson, a young man recently from Pennsylvania, has purchased the barber shop of E. D. Morden. Mr. Thompson takes charge of the shop tomorrow. Mr. Morden leaves to-morrow evening for Montrose, Col., where he expects to work in a barber shop.

—A singing and card party was given at C. J. Ferris's residence, Thursday evening, in honor of Mr. J. H. Mathers. Quite a number of invited guests were present, and the evening was spent very pleasantly.

—Several children in the east part of town are reported as having measles in a light form. The disease is also said to be in the family of Mr. Herman, on Franklin street.

—A festival was given at Downer school house Monday evening, under the auspices of the Baptist membership, for the benefit of Rev. Mr. Walker.

—Our friend Jno. W. Reynolds, of Downer valley, was in town Thursday evening, paid us an agreeable visit, and gave us several news items.

—A dance came off at the residence of Mr. Hoover, near Gibson, Monday night. The party took supper at the school house.

—A festival was given at T. T. Armstrong's, on the Smoky, Thursday evening, for the benefit of Rev. J. C. Elliott.
